

Market commentary: The VN-Index fluctuated erratically within a tight range against a backdrop of low liquidity

Investors' euphoria from last week's extraordinary V-shaped recovery session waned as the trading day wore on, and the market closed down 3.4pts, at 1,995.5pts. European stock markets started the week on an upbeat note as traders queried central banks' resolve to keep raising interest rates amid mounting evidence of a global economic slowdown, and the VN-Index opened positively with a bullish gap of 7.6pts. The non-bank stocks in the VN30 basket, including Oil & Gas, Retail, and Vingroup related stocks, exerted considerable selling pressure on the VN-Index as it hit a session high of 1,208.9pts. However, the index had slowly and softly moved back to the reference level, thanks to the support from Banking and Security stocks when the morning session was about to end. After losing some of its impetus during the morning session, the VN-Index saw a less favorable afternoon session during which it hovered around a crucial psychological support level of 1,200.0pts. The index was weighed down by heavy selling of stocks in sectors that have lately shown a negative correlation with the market, such as the Energy, Aquaculture, Chemical and Seaports industry. Before the start of the ATC session, the market fought and closed below the 1,200.0 level. Investors' concerns about liquidity had not abated (down 20% from the previous 20 session average) and strong segmentation of cash flow led investors to concentrate on a select group of equities within the Banking and Security and a smaller number of Manufacturing stocks. GAS (-1.3%), MSN (-0.9%), DGC (-5.2%), MWG (-3.6%), HPG (-1.8%), and VHM (-0.6%) took away 2.5pts, while VNM (+1.9%), VIB (+6.8%), MBB (+1.6%), TCB (+1.0%), VND (+3.2%), and HCM (+6.9%) contributed 2.4pts to the Index. At the end of the session, the VN-INDEX declined slightly by 0.3% to 1,195.5pts, while the HNX-INDEX increased by 0.8% to 281.2pts.

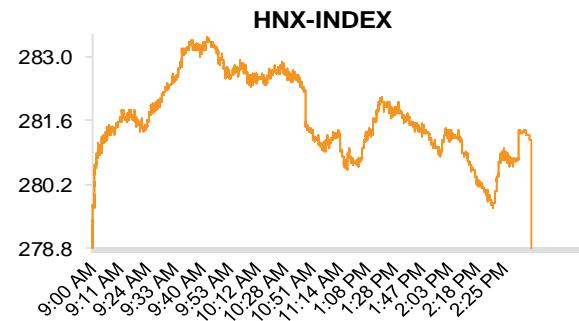

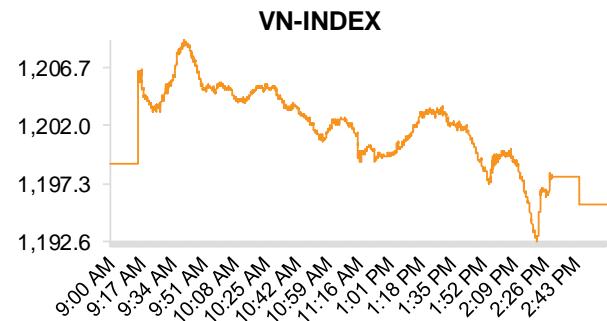

Financials (+0.7%) and Consumer Staples (+0.1%) rose, while Utilities (-2.7%), Consumer Discretionary (-2.3%), and IT (-1.8%) lost ground today. Top index movers included VNM (+1.9%), VIB (+6.8%), MBB (+1.7%), TCB (+1.0%), and VND (+3.2%). Top index laggards consisted of GAS (-3.9%), MSN (-1.6%), DGC (-5.2%), MWG (-3.6%), and HPG (-1.8%). Top three major put-through transactions were VPB with 5.5m shares (VND169.8bn), FUEVFVND with 5.7m shares (VND155.6bn), and SHB with 8.2m shares (VND108.4bn).

Foreigner's net sold on HOSE to the amount of VND123.6bn, and also net sold on HNX to the amount of VND1.6bn. They mainly bought PNJ (VND134.5bn), STB (VND81.8bn), and VNM (VND69.4bn); and mainly sold MWG (VND145.9bn), PNJ (VND123.6bn), and NVL (VND64.9bn).

Asia crude: Iran slashes oil price to compete with Russia

Iran is being forced to discount its already cheap crude even more as a top ally gains a bigger foothold in the key Chinese market. China has become an important destination for Russian oil as Moscow seeks to maintain flows following the fallout from its invasion of Ukraine. The official selling price of Indonesia's Minas crude, also known as Sumatran Light crude, was set at US$119.50 a barrel for June, according to a statement on the energy and mineral resources website. That compares with US$110.70 for May. (Bloomberg)

Tan Son Nhat to be part of airport urban development project

Ho Chi Minh City aims to develop the Tan Son Nhat Airport urban area with commercial and service streets associated with transportation. Tan Son Nhat airport area was established in the 1930s and has quickly developed into an important location not only for HCM City but also for the country. According to the development plan by 2030, the airport will still be the main traffic hub of Vietnam and will welcome 50 million passengers per year. Currently, the existing Tan Son Nhat airport covers 800 hectares, located about 10km from the city center. This is a great advantage as well as an opportunity for this area to develop under the "airport urban area" model. According to the HCM City Department of Planning and Architecture, the city has realized that this airport is not only a mere transportation hub, but its advantages can be promoted for multi-dimensional socio-economic development. The municipal government has assigned agencies to develop the international airport urban model for the Tan Son Nhat airport area on a trial basis. The approach is to use the airport as the center, thereby creating an impetus for the development of the surrounding urban area. (Vietnamnet)
